

Obituary

Born: Thursday, December 18, 1952

Died: Friday, July 24, 2020

Carol Richardson passed away peacefully in her home on Friday, July 24, 2020, after a difficult battle with cancer. She was surrounded by family members and friends, who already miss her deeply.

When Carol moved to Vail in 1988, she began a life of more than 30 years in Eagle County, making lasting impressions and landing squarely in the hearts of everyone she met. If she didn't pour you a cold one while bartending at the Westin and Vail Cascade (for more than 20 years!), you may have caught a glimpse as she hit the slopes in her bikini! In the late nineties, Carol and her husband Gary moved to Gypsum and created a lovely homestead while raising their daughter, Cheyenne, the light of their lives. In recent years, Carol was the face of the 14K Cafe at Eagle County Regional Airport, becoming a favorite of both local travelers and tourists alike. In a valley where the faces so often change from season to season, Carol was a cherished presence for decades.
